TRACTION STOCK LOSSES

Declines Caused by Street Railway Franchise Assessments.

The Slump Extends to Three Points. Sugar Refiring Remarkably Active and Strong-Most of the Buy-the property of the local traction companies under the new franchise law was followed by severe losses in all those stocks upon the opening of business this morning. The declines extended from one to three points, but were to some extent recovered in the subsequent dealings. The idea seemed to be common that the companies would be able to contest such valuations in the courts with some hopes of success. The remainder of the Stock Market was to some extent influenced by the weakness of the local traction shares, but

The railway list, while somewhat affected by the weakness in other quarters of the market, had a good undertone and showed limited and irregular price changes as compared with yesterday's final figures. London was not a factor of great importance in the early dealings as the quotations for American stocks from that quarter were about on a parity with the local closing and the dealings here for foreign account were again on both sides of the market.

The Stock Market this morning was The Stock Market this morning was active and strong during the first hour and prices advanced from a fraction to two points from the closing prices of last night. Later there was some real zirg, in which part of the advance was Fst, but the underttone was strong at all times, especially in the railway securities, which have been housant for the past two wasks. Curibuoyant for the past two weeks. Curi-ously enough and contrary to all expecta-tions, Sugar spurted up from below par to 101 and a fraction. No partic ar expla-nation was given of this advance, and it Lincoln was thought by careful people that it might be followed by a recession before the day was over. Money was easy, and London continued a purchaser, particularly of the Atchison securities and the Pacifics. The banks have gained from the subtreasury since last Friday over $1,000,000, and as the figures of tomorrow's statement are made up only to today noon, there is every reason to expect an increase in cash to be shown. The outlook is for a good market tomorrow and a high opening on Monday.

The Sugar situation receives more at ing for Short Account-London Not thing for Short Account-London Not thing could be known regarding it such a statement might not be safe, but where NEW YORK, March 30.—The publication this morning of the assessments fixed upon the property of the local traction compatible property is presented to the street in a most property of the local traction company to the local tone was common.

Sugar Refining was remarkably active and strong advancing nearly two points in the opening dealings without any particular gossip attending its course.

Most of the buying seemed to be for short account, and it probably reflected the apprehensions that the selling rates on refined sugar might be restored today. Aside from Sugar Refining the industrial quarter was not active, but for the most part was dealt in at quite sharp declines, particularly for the steel stocks.

The rallway list, while somewhat affect the marks.

There k more talk of $6,000,000 new St. aul stock to be issued at par, but no of-leial confirmation of the story can be ob-ained. The grangers were opened weak his morning, but advanced quickly to nea

Pleasant Brown, an energetic elder of the church, accompanied by several female members of the church, visited Richmond, and a fight followed, in which Richmond was apparently whipped. Richmond pulled a pistol and, it is stated, snapped it three times in Brown's face. He then used the buttend on Brown's head. A warrant was issued charging Richmond with assault and battery with intent fo kill. Richmond has gone away, and Constable George Harrison is searching for him.
